

January 2020 Newsletter

Welcome back. I trust you all had a happy and peaceful break. I would like to take this opportunity on behalf of all the staff to thank you for all the wonderful messages and greetings we received at the end of last term.

A new term and a new year. A time that holds so much promise. As NVIS continues to grow and thrive we will be reflecting on our successes so that we may build on them further. We will continue to have a focus on manners and courtesy with an added element of friendship. The gift of friendship is a precious one and can take many forms. Children often see friendship in a very narrow way, defined only by the people they like and want to spend time with. We would like you to encourage your children to value their friendship and show random acts of kindness towards each other.

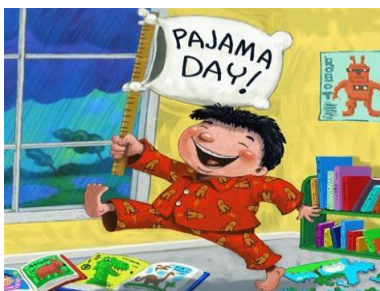

So much communication takes the form of instructions of yes or no answers. We want to encourage debate and discussion, develop the skills of conversation with our children, and their vocabulary and thinking skills. It is through these types of discussions on random topics (friendship) that we find out what our children think and feel about things and how they see their place in the world; their hopes, fears and dreams for the future.

Happening at NVIS

From next week PYP will be working on a slightly adjusted timetable, with an increased contact with Homeroom teachers for IB/PYP trans-disciplinary nature. We will also be sending you an updated assessment policy to serve the needs of the program.

NVIS students are busy with their Ministry exams, followed by MYP /American and DP Exams by the end of January. Let's wish our students all the Best.
